MSRA show management reserves the right to accept or refuse any Application in its sole discretion.

Vendor will be notified of Application status.

Section 7 CONFIDENTIALITY and PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION

1. "Confidential Information" means any information regarding a Party, disclosed by either Party ("Disclosing Party") or otherwise made available to the other Party ("Receiving Party") pursuant to this Application, whether intentionally or inadvertently, including without limitation information related to Disclosing Party's intellectual property, marketing plans, members, general business operations, finances, suppliers, or documents which are expressly designated as confidential; provided, however that Confidential Information will not include information that: (a) is now generally available or becomes generally available to the public without breach of this Application; (b) is lawfully obtained from a third party or parties without a duty of confidentiality; (c) is known to Receiving Party prior to disclosure without fault or breach of confidentiality obligation; or (d) is at any time developed by Receiving Party independently of any disclosure from Disclosing Party.
2. "Personal Information" has the same meaning as the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada), S.C. 2000, c. 5, or other similar legislation.
3. Except as expressly permitted in this Section, the Receiving Party will keep confidential and will not disclose or use the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information for itself or the benefit of any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party will use the same level of security precautions to protect the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information that the Disclosing Party uses to protect its own Confidential Information of like kind.
4. MSRA acknowledges and agrees that, in the performance of its obligations under this Application, MSRA may have access to Personal Information of Vendor or their representatives. MSRA will comply with all applicable law respecting Personal Information. MSRA will collect, use and disclose Personal Information solely for the purposes of this Application, the Rodarama car show and for no other purpose.
5. Vendor acknowledges and approves the use of their Personal Information for the purposes of organizing and presenting the Rodarama car show referenced herein.
